

Congress of the United States

Washington, DC 20515

November 19, 2018

The Honorable Sonny Perdue
Secretary of Agriculture
United States Department of Agriculture
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250

Dear Secretary Perdue:

I understand that the U.S. Department of Agriculture is considering whether the damage caused by the Roosevelt Fire in Sublette County, Wyoming is eligible for Emergency Watershed Protection Program (EWP) aid.

The Roosevelt Fire caused significant damage and losses, and it is critically important that the federal government provide all appropriate forms of assistance, in accordance with relevant rules, laws, and regulations. I urge you to review the request for EWP assistance as quickly as possible and provide any assistance appropriate so that plans to mitigate hazards caused by the Roosevelt Fire can be developed and executed as soon as possible.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Michael B. Enzi
United States Senator

John Barrasso
United States Senator

Liz Cheney
